

Lecture Series on 2024 Nobel Prizes

Computing to remember--a unification of biology, physics, and computation
by
Prof. Anirban Dasgupta
Professor - Computer Science & Engineering

Nobel Prize in Physics
Date : 11th January 2025
Time : 4pm onwards
Venue : AB 1-FF-201

Nobel Prize in Chemistry
Date : 18th January 2025
Time : 4pm onwards
Venue: AB 1-GF-101

Predicting protein structures- a journey
by
Prof. Sairam Mallajosyula
Associate Professor - Chemistry

How tiny molecules and a worm helped us understand how genes are controlled
by
Prof. Sharmistha Majumdar
Associate Professor - Biological Sciences and Engineering

Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine
Date : 25th January 2025
Time : 4pm onwards
Venue: AB 1-GF-101

Nobel Prize in Economic Sciences
Date : 1st February 2025
Time : 4pm onwards
Venue : AB 1-GF-101

Socio-economic institutions and economic development
by
Prof. Deepak Singhania
Assistant Professor - Humanities and Social Sciences

Secured in translation: Han Kang's country and her global empathy in the painful and beautiful world
by
Prof. Jooyoung Kim
Assistant Teaching Professor - Humanities and Social Sciences

Nobel Prize in Literature
Date : 8th February 2025
Time : 4pm onwards
Venue: AB 1-GF-101

Nobel Prize in Peace
Date : 15th February 2025
Time : 4pm onwards
Venue: AB 1-GF-101

The Nihon Hidankyo aka Hibakusha movement for a world free of nuclear weapons: A critical appreciation
by
Prof. Tanka B. Subba
Visiting Professor - Humanities and Social Sciences

